

LEO HILJINGER

St. Laurent

This grape variety belongs to the Pinot Noir family but is more stylistically reminiscent of a Bordeaux. It is richer and more powerful than Pinot Noir with aromas of Amarelle cherries, plums and dark berries. Notes of spice, cocoa and fine tannins are featured on its lengthy finish. Pairs well with pork tenderloin, duck, thick grilled fish and game.

LEO HILJINGER

St. Laurent

This grape variety belongs to the Pinot Noir family but is more stylistically reminiscent of a Bordeaux. It is richer and more powerful than Pinot Noir with aromas of Amarelle cherries, plums and dark berries. Notes of spice, cocoa and fine tannins are featured on its lengthy finish. Pairs well with pork tenderloin, duck, thick grilled fish and game.

LEO HILJINGER

St. Laurent

This grape variety belongs to the Pinot Noir family but is more stylistically reminiscent of a Bordeaux. It is richer and more powerful than Pinot Noir with aromas of Amarelle cherries, plums and dark berries. Notes of spice, cocoa and fine tannins are featured on its lengthy finish. Pairs well with pork tenderloin, duck, thick grilled fish and game.

LEO HILJINGER

St. Laurent

This grape variety belongs to the Pinot Noir family but is more stylistically reminiscent of a Bordeaux. It is richer and more powerful than Pinot Noir with aromas of Amarelle cherries, plums and dark berries. Notes of spice, cocoa and fine tannins are featured on its lengthy finish. Pairs well with pork tenderloin, duck, thick grilled fish and game.

LEO HILJINGER

St. Laurent

This grape variety belongs to the Pinot Noir family but is more stylistically reminiscent of a Bordeaux. It is richer and more powerful than Pinot Noir with aromas of Amarelle cherries, plums and dark berries. Notes of spice, cocoa and fine tannins are featured on its lengthy finish. Pairs well with pork tenderloin, duck, thick grilled fish and game.

LEO HILJINGER

St. Laurent

This grape variety belongs to the Pinot Noir family but is more stylistically reminiscent of a Bordeaux. It is richer and more powerful than Pinot Noir with aromas of Amarelle cherries, plums and dark berries. Notes of spice, cocoa and fine tannins are featured on its lengthy finish. Pairs well with pork tenderloin, duck, thick grilled fish and game.

LEO HILJINGER

St. Laurent

This grape variety belongs to the Pinot Noir family but is more stylistically reminiscent of a Bordeaux. It is richer and more powerful than Pinot Noir with aromas of Amarelle cherries, plums and dark berries. Notes of spice, cocoa and fine tannins are featured on its lengthy finish. Pairs well with pork tenderloin, duck, thick grilled fish and game.

LEO HILJINGER

St. Laurent

This grape variety belongs to the Pinot Noir family but is more stylistically reminiscent of a Bordeaux. It is richer and more powerful than Pinot Noir with aromas of Amarelle cherries, plums and dark berries. Notes of spice, cocoa and fine tannins are featured on its lengthy finish. Pairs well with pork tenderloin, duck, thick grilled fish and game.