

Paul Direder

Mittelstockstall - Wagram - Austria

Paul, the only one of eight grand children drawn to the world of wine, will turn 21 this year. Paul has his wine degree, grandfather Leopold as teacher, and Anton Bauer as mentor guiding him into the exciting world of wine. Paul farms eight vineyard parcels in the Wagram 50 km west of Vienna.

Paul D Grüner Veltliner (GV) 2009 1 liter bottle

In Austria people love to drink their GV – Grüner Veltliner – an Austrian grape. Lately we are starting to see more GV's on the market and the Paul D GV is a perfect example why Austrian's love this wine so much.

This comes in the classic recycle 1 liter bottle - that is 33% more wine and makes this an exceptional value – think unoaked Chardonnay

Here is the the Washington Post wrote about the 2008:

“It is dry yet impressively ripe, with vibrant lime zest flavors and an appealing richness in the mouth feel”....

The Washington Post, July 2009

Paul D Zweigelt 2009 1 liter bottle

This is a pure, ripe cherry-filled, polished, sappy, and lip-smacking juicy expression of Zweigelt that finishes nice and pleasant. Perfect on a picnic, this is a crowd pleasing wines that define pleasure, price worthiness, and quality.